"ALMA MATER"

Far up near the Northern border, where the St. Lawrence flows,
 Stands our dear old Alma Mater, dearer as it grows.
 Hail, dear High School, St. Lawrence High School; We shall bring thee fame.
 Praise to thee our Alma Mater Glory to thy name!

The Senior Class of '52 earnestly hopes that this, the fourth volume of "The Covtonian", will not only acquaint the townspeople with the many activities of our school but also, in years to come, will be for us a reminder of the unforgettable days spent at FCHS.

May we open with a loving tribute to our vivacious little four year old "Lady-in-waiting" who stole the show at our Junior Prom? Ours, too, were among the hearts she made happier.

DEDICATION

As a teacher, a counselor and a friend, Florence Macartney Hunter served our school for many years. Under her leadership, hundreds of students gained knowledge and experience that they might better themselves and be of service to their fellow men. Of this true lady who gave herself so unselfishly to her difficult tasks, we, the Class of 1952 will always speak with pride and respect. To her memory we dedicate our yearbook.

FORT CLASS ENJOYS TRIP TO WASHINGTON, NEW YORK AND ALBANY

"THE SENIOR FLING"

At 10:30 a. m. April 10th we seniors of Fort Covington high school started on our class trip. With the band playing, flags flying and the majority of students outside wishing us "bon voyage" we felt very festive as we boarded our old reliable school bus. At Malone we finally got all of us plus all our luggage transferred to the Trailways. Did we feel like outlaws when we were "pinched" by the State Troopers outside of Saranac Lake for traveling overweight on a posted road! Another transfer at Saranac; a gay, noisy ride down state, and we reached Albany about six o'clock. After struggling with our suitcases for what seemed miles up State street hill, we arrived at our hotel, the Wellington.

The evening was left free for our own enjoyment.

The next morning we boarded a train, chartered for hundreds of senior students throughout New York State. Needless to say, that trip was fun! Traveling down the west side of the Hudson, we were able to go directly to Washington non-stop. Our route enabled us to pass through New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Maryland. After checking in at the Hotel Hamilton early Friday evening, we had an opportunity to become acquainted with downtown Washington.

Saturday morning, we went to see the Jefferson Memorial, Washington airport, Pentagon Building, Christ church, George Washington Masonic Memorial, and toured Alexandria, Va., and Mount Vernon. In the afternoon we visited Arlington Cemetery, arriving in time to see the change of guards at the "Tomb of the Unknown Soldier." Next we stopped at the Curtis Lee Mansion, then took a tour of the city, seeing the various embassies, government buildings and parks. Saturday evening, we attended a dance given for the entire tour group in the Hotel Hamilton ballroom.

Those headlines tell the story! Beginning with our first class meeting held in January, 1949, our big aim throughout the four years was our Senior Class Trip. As a class we used to meet, dream up, discuss and vote on money making projects. Cook books, rummage sales, card parties, minstrel shows, food sales, dances, cake walks, suppers, pie-eating contests, plays---these are some of the things we "came up with". The great success of these activities stands as proof of the excellent cooperation of every one of our class members.

But our talents were not all directed at money-making. Proudly we point to our class as a very "versatile" one. We have students outstanding not only in school subjects but in every extracurricular activity. Below is our last "gang" picture together. Now turn the page and meet us one by one.

Sunday morning some of the group returned to Arlington Cemetery to see the impressive Easter Sunrise service. Others attended early Mass at St. Matthew's cathedral. Later that morning we visited Washington monument.

Just as we were leaving that we were stopped by a motorcycle guard clearing the highway for the president and his party who were returning from a service at Jefferson Memorial. Mr. Truman passed directly in front of several of us and gave us a friendly hand wave. In the afternoon we visited the Franciscan Monastery, Zoological Park and the Washington cathedral. Sunday night we saw the Lincoln Memorial and a beautiful night view of the Lincoln statue. From there we went to the Library of Congress where we saw the original Constitution. We then took a tour around the capital to view the beauty of it at night.

Monday morning we visited the Bureau of Engraving, the Pan American Building and the Smithsonian Institution. We left Washington by train at noon for New York City. After checking in at the Taft hotel that evening, we went to the Ringling Brothers circus at Madison Square Garden.

Tuesday morning we went to Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral and the R.C.A. Building, where we had a guided tour through the building getting a behind-the-scenes story on radio and television. It is doubted if the boys saw much of it as they were very busy watching our cute little blond guide, Joanie. In the afternoon we went on a bus tour of upper and lower New York. We saw Chinatown, the Bowery, the United Nations Building, visited the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and Grant's Tomb. Tuesday night we saw the televised broadcast of Ted Mack's original Amateur Hour.

Wednesday morning we went by boat to the Statue of Liberty. The afternoon was free; some of us went shopping and some went to Coney Island. That evening we went to Radio City Music Hall where we saw "Singing in the Rain," the Rockettes, and the stirring Easter Show.

We left for Albany by train at 1:30 Thursday morning and arrived at 5:00 a. m. where we changed to a bus and arrived in Ft. Covington at 12:30.

Prom

Lights out!! (a pole knocked down on the Malone Road) --- strains of soft music by Joe Calipari (He didn't show up) --- the setting of a luxurious Caribbean Cruiser (No paper decorations may be used) ---- this was the start of our Junior Prom. But everything turned out exceptionally well, and the evening was climaxed with the crowning of the king and queen. Escorted to their "Thrones" by Linda Doney and Bruce Dupra, Teresa Ghostlaw and Leo Latulipe were proclaimed the ruling sovereigns.

Class of 1953

- Row 1: D. Bashaw, J. Yeddo, B. Grady, G. Mainville
M. Jock, C. Benane, J. Brockway, J. Browne,
M. Bailey, M. Rouselle
- Row 2: B. Smith, R. Regan, D. Gorman, R. Derochie,
R. Boyle, J. Black, H. Foisy, D. Bailey

In our freshman year the class officers were elected as follows: Pres. R. Regan; Sec. H. Bussey; Treas. R. Boyle, News Reporter B. Grady. Three of our members, R. Fullum, E. Campbell, and H. Brown left our class. We held two dances and a card party, all great successes largely because of the help of our advisor, Mrs. Lucas.

Our sophomore class officers were as follows: Pres. R. Regan; Sec. J. Black; Treas. R. Boyle; News Reporter, H. Foisy. This year Mrs. Tolosky took over as advisor in Mrs. Lucas' place. We held two dances in our sophomore year and one member, E. Latreille, left us.

The class officers of our Junior year were elected as follows: Pres. D. Bashaw; Vice-Pres. H. Foisy; Sec. M. Rouselle; Treas. R. Boyle; News Reporter, R. Regan. We staged a highly successful magazine selling campaign. We had two food sales and held several fudge sales and a ham supper. Most of the Juniors received class rings and were well pleased with them. All the Juniors are looking forward to our Junior Prom which will be held after Commencement.

Class of 1954

- Row 1: C. Robert, G. Ghostlaw, N. LaPage
 Row 2: I. Johnston, P. LaMay, J. Bushey, J. Smallman
 S. Grant, S. Andrews, S. Peets, P. Smith
 Row 3: J. Black, V. Johnson, J. Mainville R. Thebert
 D. Avery, J. Benane, W. Allen J. Robinson, P.
 Johnson, J. McElwain, M. Mainville

After having the first eighth grade graduation in a long time, as Freshmen we made our way into our first year of high school work. With the help of our class advisor, Mrs. Freeman, we had a class meeting and elected officers, as follows: President, June McElwain; Secretary, Shirley Peets; Treasurer, Donald Avery.

In our Freshman Class there were twenty-one members until Shirley Andrews decided to move on with the Sophomores. We held two dances which were quite successful.

This year, we have nineteen members in our class. Those who left us were Francis Turner and Geraldine LaRock, who moved away, and John Rushlow, who quit in his second year. Francis Tuper thought farm life was better. Shirley Andrews, after spending a half year with the class of '54 decided to quit school. But this year we had two new members from Canada - Shirley Grant and John Robinson.

We elected class officers as follows; President June McElwain; Secretary, Marilyn Mainville; Treasurer Donald Avery; News Reporter Norman LaPage.

So far this year we have had a food sale and frequent fudge sales. Our Sophomore Jubilee, held in April was a huge success both socially and financially.

We feel we have had much success in past years and hope to have more in the next two years.

Class of 1955

- Row 1: C. Barse, J. Russell, W. Bennett, J. Rushlow, J. Brockway, R. Barney, L. Robinson.
- Row 2: L. Latulipe, M. Noreault, J. Avery, J. Yeddo, P. Mitchell, I. Benane, A. Shartrand, J. Dumas, P. Bashaw, J. Robinson, J. Rubadeau.
- Row 3: J. Martin, B. Thebert, J. Quenville, R. St.-Thomas, H. Poulton, A. Bailey, E. McElwain, W. Peets, M. Mainville, A. Robert, S. Synder.

At the first class meeting in September, the Freshman Class elected officers to lead us successfully through the beginning of our high school career: Pres., J. Martin; V. Pres. L. Latulipe; Sec., P. Bashaw; Treas., R. Barney. Our class advisor was Miss P. O'Neil.

The use of the democratic parliamentary procedure in conducting our meetings allows each student to voice his opinions and results in a variety of ideas. The class officers regulate the meetings.

After much debate and consideration, our main project for 1951 was to be a Halloween Dance. Every freshman took part in decorating, selling tickets, recruiting cider and doughnuts, selling refreshments and taking tickets. The result was a total success: "a happy evening with much profit."

We secretly planned and organized a Christmas party with delicious refreshments and a gift for Miss O'Neil. With everyone so willing to help, the party was a real surprise and great fun.

In October we said farewell to J. MacGibbon who moved to Brushton. Janice had been a classmate for many years and we miss her now.

Individuals of the freshman class are busy making names for themselves in different fields: W. Peets and E. McElwain in football; J. Russell, W. Peets, E. McElwain in hockey; W. Peets and E. McElwain in varsity basketball and R. Barney, A. Bailey, C. Barse and W. Bennett in junior varsity basketball. There are members of our class in the glee club, band, and F.F.A.

At the end of the first semester, Miss O'Neil left us and was replaced by Mr. P. Edmunds who helped us sponsor our Freshman Play, "Sound Your Horn", successfully.

In our last class meetings we have made many plans for the remainder of the year which we hope will make our class of 1955 "one of the best" at Fort Covington High School.

KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Freeman

"Make me a child again" might very well be the wish of any visitor looking in on the gay kindergarten crowd. With seventeen youngsters registered, this instruction was inaugurated in our school at the beginning of the second semester.

Intended to teach the pre-school child initiative and co-operation, classes meet with Mrs. Burton Freeman each afternoon from one until three. Here they color, count, print, march, sing take part in group games, have a free activity period during which they play with a variety of educational toys, and even enjoy a lunch together. Graduates of this, the first kindergarten class of FCHS, will be as follows:

CAFETERIA

With the addition of gay-colored formica - topped tables and matching chrome - trimmed chairs, our cafeteria has taken on a "new look" this year. Each month a faculty member has charge of decorating the cafeteria in a theme consistent with the season. Add to this background a program of popular recorded music, arranged by Dick Boyle, and you have an ideal setting for enjoying the noon-day meal.

What's on the menu? Meat loaf, creamed potatoes, spinach, home-baked bread and butter, freshly made cake and milk---this is a typical meal at the rock-bottom price of fifteen cents. And it's the job of our "cafeteria ladies" to turn this out on time daily for one-hundred forty to one-hundred sixty-five hungry customers.

Who are these wonder workers? Mrs. Elmer Santamoor who heads the project and has behind her nine years of hard-earned experience at it; Mrs. Emma McElwain with three and a half years to her credit; and Miss Gertrude McElwain who has worked here steadily for three years, following four years of substitute work. These ladies are, indeed, a vital part of our school. May we sincerely congratulate them for their excellent work?

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, town of Fort Covington, county of Franklin, being of sound mind and memory, do make and publish this as our Last Will and Testament.

William Boyle	leaves his talkativeness to Norman La-page.
Phyllis Brockway	leaves Bob Regan to Janice Smallman.
Harriet Brown	gives her loud boisterous ways to June Brockway.
Hilda Bussey	leaves her talent in music to Phyllis LaMay.
Peggy Cooke	wills her nice quiet retiring disposition and cool temper to Marilyn Roussele.
Lorraine Dupra	wills her ability to always bring her cafeteria money to Errol McElwain.
Joyce Dow	donates her seat in American history to Billy Peets.
Eunice Dumas	leaves her teasing ability to Marilyn Mainville.
Wayne Ghostlaw	leaves his nickname "Lou" to Hector Foisy.
Robert Grant	bequeaths his great ability to get the girls to do all his news reporting work to his successor in the class of '53.
Carolyn Howard	wills her fountain pen, pencils and ruler to David Gorman.
Shirley Manson	leaves her chemistry manual for the use of all future science students.
Joyce Mayville	leaves her ability, as class treasurer to rake the old money in to the Class of '53.
Eveline Noreault	bequeaths her sentimental ways to Sammy Miller.
Genevieve Prue	leaves her "giggle" to June McElwain.
Joyce Savage	leaves her ability to write letters and to make long-distance phone calls to Agnes Shartrand.
Kathleen Smiddy	leaves her love for health topics to Shirley Peets.
Charles Smith	bequeaths his ability to get along with Mr. Doney to Harry Poulton.
Frank Latulipe	just leaves "you poor girls".

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the advertizers whose announcements appear in the following pages. Without their excellent cooperation our year book would have been an impossibility.
